

ONLINE TEAM-BASED GLOBAL INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

What will you gain from a global team-based internship online?

- Expand your knowledge of an industry area and explore local business culture
- Develop your global networks and cultivate professional contacts
- Build a range of skills such as teamwork, applied research, client relations, data synthesis & analysis, communications, and time management
- Enhance abilities such as navigating ambiguity, collaborating across cultures & time zones, presenting recommendations, and employing digital tools
- Deliver a project and add to your employability portfolio

“The team-based project was tangible, task oriented and helped me build presentation skills” (Carolina, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Consumer Goods Company: develop and deliver SWOT analysis for new product and coordinate online launch event

Sample Project with EdTech Start Up: support beta testing and market expansion for language learning program

Sample Project with Public Health NGO: collect data, synthesize findings, and present impact report for international project

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.

AUSTRALIA: ONLINE TEAM-BASED INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

Exact opportunities can vary due to such factors as market trends, time of year, and economic outlook. Strong industry sectors for team internships in Australia include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Arts & Culture: event management, web design, historical sites, research, communications strategy, and more
- Business & Logistics: infrastructure, transportation, delivery, supply chain management, market research, expansion strategy, and more
- Entrepreneurship & Technology: EdTech, innovation hubs, start-up accelerators, UX design, VC funding, and more
- Healthcare & Education: policy research, NGOs, think tanks, community agencies, galleries, healthcare consultancies, and more

“The team-based project allowed me to see different perspectives and gain confidence in my own abilities” (Mildred, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Marketing Firm: develop and deliver all aspects of annual food innovation event that has shifted to online delivery

Sample Project with Public Health NGO: collect data, analyze results and present impact report for international project

Sample Project with Trade Association: survey local companies, identify trends for expansion plans, and research priority or regions

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.

CANADA: ONLINE TEAM-BASED INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

Exact opportunities can vary due to such factors as market trends, time of year, and economic outlook. Strong industry sectors for team internships in Canada include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Business & Finance: professional services, auditing, recruitment support, consulting, trade associations, and more
- Engineering & Design: software design, website maintenance, impact reporting, game development, beta testing, model modification, and more
- Healthcare & Education: public health, research, policy analysis, constituent outreach, EdTech, and more
- Marketing & Communications: public relations, social media development, content creation, post-production support, brand management, and more

“The team-based project allowed me to see different perspectives and gain confidence in my own abilities” (Mildred, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Arts Agency: plan virtual events and lecture series, create email newsletters, and research funding opportunities

Sample Project with Film Industry: assist with post-production and editing or support operations review

Sample Project with Engineering Firm: work on product development and research new features to support modifications for the US market

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.

ENGLAND: ONLINE TEAM-BASED INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

Exact opportunities can vary due to such factors as market trends, time of year, and economic outlook. Strong industry sectors for team internships in England include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Business & Finance: financial services, professional services, auditing, business development, consulting, trade associations, logistics, and more
- Technology & Design: FinTech, graphic design, web maintenance, animation, software development, and more
- Communications & Marketing: public relations, content creation, social media, corporate communications, tourism agencies, NGOs, and more

“The team-based project allowed me to see different perspectives and gain confidence in my own abilities” (Mildred, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Financial Services Consultancy: assist in audit activities including tracing, testing, closing, and finalization of audit files

Sample Project with Graphic Design Firm: work with clients to create logs, revamp websites, and develop SEO plans

Sample Project with Start-up Incubator: assist with online conference, focused on networking events to link local start-ups to national and global contacts

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.

INDIA: ONLINE TEAM-BASED INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

Exact opportunities can vary due to such factors as market trends, time of year, and economic outlook. Strong industry sectors for team internships in India include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Education & Public Health: sustainable development, nutrition programs, social services, NGOs, and more
- Marketing & Communications: media strategy, public relations, consulting, brand management, professional services, and more
- Social Justice & Sustainable Development: microfinance, entrepreneurship, policy analysis, economic development, and more

“The team-based project allowed me to see different perspectives and gain confidence in my own abilities” (Mildred, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Social Services Agency: analyze data from past court cases to determine the efficacy of police interventions and outreach programs

Sample Project with Development Consultancy: create and test a tool to evaluate outcomes for microfinance project

Sample Project with Environmental NGO: research urban consumption patterns and determine methods for lessening intake as design urban farming

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.

JAPAN: ONLINE TEAM-BASED INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

Exact opportunities can vary due to such factors as market trends, time of year, and economic outlook. Strong industry sectors for English language team internships in Japan include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Business & Communications: market research, brand communication, digital marketing, and professional services
- Information Technology & Computer Science: system development, beta testing, API development, product or services launch, and market research
- Marketing & PR: content creation, social media, corporate communications, tourism agencies, NGOs, and more
- Nonprofit & NGO: program development, policy research, data analysis, evaluation reports, and fundraising support

“The team-based project allowed me to see different perspectives and gain confidence in my own abilities” (Mildred, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Human Rights NGO: conduct research to expand proposal writing or enhance grant reporting

Sample Project with Start Up Company: support East Asia market expansion plan for emerging services company

Sample Project with SaaS Company: assist with developer network site updates, including creating and reviewing documents

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.

SOUTH AFRICA: ONLINE TEAM-BASED INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

Exact opportunities can vary due to such factors as market trends, time of year, and economic outlook. Strong industry sectors for team internships in South Africa include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Business & Trade: regional convention bureaus, trade associations, professional services, brand management, and more
- Marketing & Technology: public relations, website maintenance, graphic design, software development, social media campaigns, and more
- Economic Development & Education: social entrepreneurship, start-up incubators, community agencies, policy research, and more

“The team-based project allowed me to see different perspectives and gain confidence in my own abilities” (Mildred, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Social Media Consultancy: work with clients to develop calendar and draft content for outreach via social media channels

Sample Project with Public Health NGO: collect and analyze data related to program outcomes as part of an annual review

Sample Project with International Trade Association: compile market research and present recommendations for expansion strategy

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.

NEW YORK CITY: ONLINE TEAM-BASED INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

Exact opportunities can vary due to such factors as market trends, time of year, and economic outlook. Strong industry sectors for team internships in New York City include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Business & Marketing: professional services, financial services, consulting, branding, public relations, advertising, public relations, and more
- Healthcare & Education: healthcare management, research, education, children's services support, fitness, policy, and more
- Arts & Culture: design firms, retail, ecommerce, fashion, entertainment, galleries, and more

“The team-based project allowed me to see different perspectives and gain confidence in my own abilities” (Mildred, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Public Relations Firm: edit pitch documents, draft campaign plans, and develop social media content calendar

Sample Project with Arts & Culture Nonprofit: research funding opportunities, review grant proposals, and draft development strategy

Sample Project with Financial Planning and Wealth Management Company: conduct industry research, organize data, and compile business valuations

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.

SAN FRANCISCO: ONLINE TEAM-BASED INTERNSHIPS

Gain global work experience. Prepare for your future career. Complete a project-based deliverable. Connect with international employers, local events and fellow students.

Exact opportunities can vary due to such factors as market trends, time of year, and economic outlook. Strong industry sectors for team internships in San Francisco and the Bay Area include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Business & Trade: professional services, regional convention bureaus, industry associations, financial services, and more
- Marketing & Technology: software development, social media strategy, public relations, brand management, web design, and more
- Healthcare & Education: policy research, NGOs, think tanks, community agencies, galleries, healthcare consultancies, and more

“The team-based project allowed me to see different perspectives and gain confidence in my own abilities” (Mildred, Summer 2020 Intern)

Sample Project with Marketing Agency: compile suite of graphics for clients, including logo designs, mock-ups, user interfaces, and page layout designs

Sample Project with Financial Services Consultancy: test and verify financial models as part of portfolio management strategy

Sample Project with Social Services NGO: assist program manager with client outreach and development of online activities with families and children

The Global Career Center (GCC) team works to match each student with a team-based project that most closely connects to individual career goals, interests, and experience level. In addition to placement and support throughout the project, the GCC program includes a series of professional events and cultural activities designed specifically to make the most of the experience, connect with the local community, and build global employability.