

STUDY ABROAD

NCSAC SEMESTER ABROAD Barcelona Fall 2025 Budget Sheet

Explanation of Program Fee and Tuition

Program fee is paid to AIFS— it covers housing, orientation, metro pass, sight-seeing tours, cultural activities programs, excursions and field trips, museum pass, medical insurance, and a variety of support services while abroad.

Tuition for twelve units is paid directly to the NCSAC college(s) at which you take your classes abroad – College of San Mateo, American River College Santa Rosa Junior College, or Diablo Valley College.

Program Fee and Tuition

Program Fee Option A: Shared Apartment $9,995

Program Fee Option B: Shared Homestay: includes breakfast daily and dinner five nights per week $9,125

Tuition* Between $0 - $552
*Students may qualify for free tuition

Additional Out-of-Pocket Expenses

In addition to the program fee and tuition expenses outlined above, you will need to budget for your out-of-pocket expenses. Below are estimated expenses. Actual expenses will vary depending on your lifestyle and spending habits.

Roundtrip International Airfare Around $1,000

Meals and Personal Expenses* Between about $2,100 - $3,000

Books Amounts vary

Passport Fees (if you need a new passport) $165